O R D E R:

The Government approve the Surgeon General's proposal that Midwifery pupils may be granted sick-leave for 15 days for the whole period of their training in addition to the casual leave admissible under the rules, provided that they are admitted in sick-rooms or wards of hospitals.

2. The rules relating to the training of Midwifery Pupils in Government Hospitals, annexed to G.O. No. 1134, Public Health Dated the 22-5-1928 and G.O.No. 4050 Public Health Dated 3.11.1939 will be amended as follows:-

The following shall be inserted as Rule 18 in the appendix to G.O.No. 1134, Public Health dated 22.5.1928 and as rule 13-A in appendix I to G.O.No. 4050 Public Health dated 3.11.1939.

"The pupil midwives will be given casual leave up to a maximum of 20 days during the whole period of their training subject to the executive instructions in the Audit Manual. In addition, they may be granted sick-leave with stipends and allowances for a period not exceeding 15 days for the whole period of their training provided they are admitted in sick-rooms or wards of hospitals."
